Dear Colleague,

GTChio is proud to present the Stem Cell Summit 2016, to be held on April 25-27, 2016 in Boston, MA. GTChio's Stem Cell Summit provides cutting-edge information on developments in all areas of stem cell research from bench to bedside, including the biology, medicine, applications, regulations, product development, and the commercialization of stem cells.

Recent developments in pre-clinical and clinical trials of stem cell therapy, regenerative medicine and tissue engineering, cancer stem cells, immunotherapy, stem cell reprogramming, regulatory policies regarding stem cell research, and manufacturing will all be discussed. Business opportunities, challenges, and potential strategies for overcoming these challenges will also be addressed. Come join us to learn what categories of companies are currently commercially viable, how they're being funded, and what kind of strategic relationships are available within the industry!

Stem Cell Summit 2016 includes two back-to-back conferences including joint plenary sessions:

Conference 1: 13th Stem Cell Research & Regenerative Medicine [2]

- I. Cells for Therapeutic Development, Disease Modeling, & Drug Discovery
- II. Advances in Adult & Pluripotent Stem Cell Research & Technology
- III. Frontiers in Tissue Engineering
- IV. Immunotherapy - Revolution in Disease Treatments

Joint: Plenary Sessions

- I. Translation to the Clinic: What's in the Pipeline?
- II. Regulatory Challenges in Cell Therapy

Conference 2: 5th Stem Cell Product Development & Commercialization [3]

- I. Manufacturing & Scalable Processes
- II. Challenges in Clinical Efficacy
- III. Funding & Partnering
- IV. Commercialization: Creating Sustainable Business Models

We hope to see you there!

Best regards,

The 2016 Advisory Committee
