Description

With the FDA's recent approval of ADCs Adcetris and Kadcyra, the industry has never been moving faster. New innovations in developing the next best generation ADCs are bursting into the clinic at a rapid rate. SMI's 5th ADC Summit provides a comprehensive analysis of the various approaches with the next generation ADCs. Hear the latest insights from Takeda on Adcetris; discuss the latest advancements in research and development from Medimmune; and analyse case studies from big pharma companies such as Roche, Bayer, Pfizer, AstraZeneca, Novartis and many more.

Book by 29 February to save £400. To read more visit: <http://www.adcsummit.com/abchain> [2]
